CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE

1. GENERAL

1.1. In these terms and conditions "Buyer" refers to UNIVAR SOLUTIONS BV ("UNIVAR") and "Seller" refers to the individual, firm or company with whom the Buyer has placed an Order. The term "Contract" shall refer to any Order placed by the Buyer, and accepted by the Seller for the delivery of Goods. "Order" means the Buyer's written instruction to supply the Goods, incorporating these terms and conditions. "Goods" means any Goods agreed in the Contract to be bought by the Buyer from the Seller (including any part or parts of them).

1.2 The Order constitutes an offer by the Buyer to purchase Goods and/or services from the Seller in accordance with these Conditions. The Order shall be deemed to be accepted on the earlier of (i) the Seller issuing written acceptance of the Order; or (ii) any act by the Seller consistent with fulfilling the Order, at which date the Contract shall come into existence

1.3. These terms are the only terms upon which the Buyer is prepared to deal with the Seller and they shall govern all Contracts between them to the exclusion of all other terms or conditions.

1.4. Any variation from these general terms and conditions ("GTC") will be valid only if and to the extent that it has been expressly confirmed by the Buyer in writing.

2. ORDERS

2.1. All Orders, including Orders for direct deliveries, shall be accepted by the Seller prior to despatch or within five (5) working days of the Seller's receipt of the Order, whichever is the earlier, confirming quantity, product specification, price and delivery date.

2.2. Unless the Buyer's Order is confirmed in writing within the timeframe mentioned in clause 2.1, or delivery takes place within that time in response to the Order, the Buyer shall cease to be bound by it. Before the Order is accepted by the Seller, the Buyer shall have the right to cancel it at any time, without any liability to the Seller. Any modified acceptance of the Buyer's Order by the Seller is required to be expressly set out in writing. In this case the Contract shall become effective only when such modifications are approved by the Buyer in writing.

3. PRICES

3.1. A price that has been accepted by the Buyer may not be increased without the Buyer's prior written consent.

3.2. The price payable shall be that specified in the Order and unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Buyer shall be exclusive of value added tax but inclusive of all other charges, including without limitation, delivery of the Goods and any applicable duties or taxes. The invoice must be raised in the currency which is stated on the Order.

4. PAYMENT

4.1. The Buyer's standard payment terms are sixty (60) days after the date of receipt of the invoice unless otherwise agreed in writing. If the Buyer is in delay with payment of amounts due, such delay shall not constitute a material breach that gives the Seller a right to terminate the Contract.

4.2. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Seller will not send the invoice before the date of delivery. The invoice must be raised in the currency which is stated on the Order.

4.3. If the Buyer objects to an invoice the Buyer shall be entitled to suspend payment until the objection has been resolved between the parties, without prejudice to any of its other rights at law, under these GTC or the Contract.

4.4. The Buyer may deduct from any monies due or becoming due to the Seller any money that may be due to the Buyer from the Seller.

5. DELIVERY AND QUANTITY

5.1. In the absence of any agreement to the contrary the Goods shall be delivered by the Seller, duty paid (DDP in accordance with INCOTERMS 2010) to the address stated by the Buyer in the Order, on the stipulated date and time at the expense of the Seller.

5.2. The Seller shall promptly notify the Buyer if the Seller has reason to believe that the agreed date of delivery cannot be met. Such notification does not release the Seller from its obligations with respect to the agreed delivery time nor from its liability in that respect. The Seller shall further notify the Buyer of the estimated new delivery date.

5.3. The Buyer is entitled to terminate the Contract in respect of the delayed Order to the extent that the delay is significant. A delay shall always be deemed significant if it lasts for more than five (5) working days and the Buyer shall in such case be entitled to compensation for costs incurred and losses suffered.

5.4. In case of a delay the Buyer shall in addition to what is stated above in clause 5.3 be entitled to penalties amounting to five percent of the total price for the delayed Order per week, calculated per the first day of each week, and from the day when the Goods according to the Contract should have been delivered until they have been delivered. The aggregate amount of penalties shall however not exceed 50 percent (50%) of the price for the delayed Order. The penalties shall not exclude any other remedy available to Buyer and Buyer shall be entitled to claim additional damages to the extent that the Buyer can prove that the Buyer has incurred costs or suffered damages to an amount that exceeds the penalties.

5.5. If the Goods are delivered to the Buyer in excess of the quantities ordered the Buyer shall not be bound to pay for the excess and any excess will be and will remain at the Seller's risk and will be returnable at the Seller's expense. Deliveries in instalments will only be accepted with the Buyer's prior written consent.

5.6. If the Seller is responsible for delivery or for arranging delivery of the Goods to the Buyer's premises the Seller will be liable for all damage which it or its carrier causes to the Goods or the Buyer's property in the course of delivery and completion of offloading. If Goods are delivered before the date specified in the Order, the Buyer shall be entitled at its sole discretion to refuse to take delivery or to charge for insurance and storage of the Goods until the contractual date for delivery. In addition, if the Buyer decides to take delivery of the Goods, payment term shall still start from the delivery date stated in the Contract.

5.7. In the case of Goods supplied from outside the country from where it will be delivered, the Seller shall ensure that accurate information is provided to the Buyer as to the country of origin of the Goods and shall be liable to the Buyer for any additional duties or taxes for which the Buyer may be accountable should the country of origin prove to be different from that advised by the Seller. Unless otherwise stated in the Order, Seller is responsible for obtaining all the export and import licences for the Goods and shall be responsible for any delays due to such licences not being available when required.

5.8. Deliveries must be booked in, with the relevant Buyer site, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to delivery unless otherwise stated on the Order.

5.9 If the Contract provides that the Seller must deliver Goods in more than one delivery or render its performance in parts, the Seller must keep sufficient stock and must deliver the quantities of Goods specified by UNIVAR or perform a part of the agreed work to be specified by UNIVAR, at any time required by UNIVAR and at its first request, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

5.10 The Seller will ensure deliveries of food, personal care or pharmaceutical products are not included in mixed loads with hazardous, industrial or corrosive substances. Seller will further ensure all products and primary packaging are appropriately protected from adulteration and contamination during storage and transit.

5.11. PROOF OF DELIVERY ("P.O.D")

Where the Buyer has requested that the Seller deliver direct to the Buyer's customer, a signed P.O.D. (with all details, including the Buyer's customer's signatory name, clearly printed) must be provided to the Buyer's site from where the Order was placed. The P.O.D. must quote the Buyer's purchase order number, quantity and description of Goods delivered and be received at that site, free of charge, within three (3) working days of delivery of the Goods.

6. DOCUMENTATION

6.1. The Seller shall provide the Buyer with relevant documentation (including but not limited to the Certificates of Analysis) and the processing instructions before or at the time of delivery. The Buyer is entitled to use the documentation without restrictions, including but not limited to the right to make copies of the documentation.

6.2. Certificates of Analysis for all chemical products shall be provided free of charge with all deliveries or faxed prior to delivery, unless otherwise agreed in writing. They must quote the batch number and the Buyer's purchase order number.

7. RISK AND TITLE

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, risk in the Goods shall pass to the Buyer on completion of delivery at the place specified in the Order and title to the Goods or any part of them shall pass to the Buyer on the earlier of delivery of the Goods or upon sooner payment but nothing in this condition shall affect any right of the Buyer to reject Goods.

8. TRANSPORTATION AND PACKAGING

8.1. The Seller must properly pack the Goods for shipment, considering the Goods' nature, to the delivery address. The packaging shall adequately protect the Goods against bad weather, corrosion, accidents, vibration or shocks, etc. The Buyer may at all time return the (transport) packaging materials for the Seller's account. The Seller shall collect all packaging materials used for the delivery or have such materials collected at the Buyer's first request, without being entitled to charge any costs in this respect. Any processing or destruction of the packaging materials by the Seller will be for its account and risk.

8.2. In offering the Goods to be delivered for transportation or in transporting them, the Seller shall comply with any and all applicable rules and regulations in all countries through which the Goods to be delivered will pass. The Seller shall furnish all information required or requested by the Buyer on the Goods or the handling of the Goods.

8.3. Along with the delivery address, the product names and code numbers used by the Buyer with respect to the Goods to be delivered must be stated on all accompanying transportation papers with respect to the Goods. Failure to do so will entitle the Buyer to refuse the Goods. The Seller must compensate the Buyer for any and all losses suffered by the latter in the event of such a refusal.

8.4. DEMURRAGE

Demurrage will only be accepted after the standard time of three (3) hours from the agreed booking time. If the Seller misses the booking time no demurrage will be paid.

9. VARIATIONS

The Buyer shall have the right to at any time modify the Contract by giving the Seller written notice hereof. If a request of modification in the Seller's opinion has an impact on agreed prices or delivery dates the Seller shall notify the Buyer of this without delay and at the latest eight (8) working days from when the Seller received the notice of the modification. If the Buyer finds the impact on prices or delivery dates unreasonable, the parties shall consult each other in order to find a solution. If no such solution can be found the Buyer shall be entitled to terminate the Contract and the Seller shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with clause 17.4.

10. INSPECTION - REJECTION

10.1 The Seller shall allow UNIVAR or third parties designated by UNIVAR access to the production, processing or storage site or sites at UNIVAR's first request in order to inspect the Goods and the facilities. The Seller shall lend any assistance required by UNIVAR in this respect. If the Goods cannot be inspected due to a circumstance for which the Seller can be held responsible, the Seller will be liable for the loss thus caused. Such inspection will mean neither delivery nor acceptance of the Goods to be delivered. However, UNIVAR's failure to discover a defect or to execute an inspection will not discharge the Seller from its liabilities in relation to any defect.

10.2 UNIVAR reserves the right to reject any Goods or workmanship which is proved on inspection to be faulty in quality or construction, or is not of satisfactory quality, or is not reasonably fit for the purpose for which it is supplied, or which is not in accordance with the Contract or not in accordance with the agreed specification.

10.3 If UNIVAR rejects the Goods, the Seller will be liable for any and all losses thus arising. Without prejudice to UNIVAR's rights, the Seller must, at UNIVAR's first request and within two (2) working Days after the rejection, or earlier if UNIVAR so requires, ensure that the Goods are repaired or replaced before being delivered. If the Seller fails to fulfil this obligation, UNIVAR may purchase the required goods from a third party or take measures or have measures taken by third parties for the Seller's account and risk, without prejudice to UNIVAR's other rights at law or under these GTC or the Contract.

10.4 UNIVAR may complain about visible defects during fifteen (15) days after delivery or any longer period allowed by the law. UNIVAR may complain about invisible defects during fifteen (15) days after their discovery or any longer period allowed by the law. Acceptance of the Goods by UNIVAR will be without prejudice to any and all claims of UNIVAR against the Seller. The Seller undertakes to replace such rejected Goods with all reasonable speed if requested to do so by UNIVAR. UNIVAR shall be under no obligation to accept such replacement of Goods. Any money paid to the Seller in respect of rejected Goods shall be repaid forthwith by the Seller upon demand by UNIVAR.

11. GUARANTEE

11.1. The Goods and/or services shall be provided by the Seller in compliance with all applicable laws and regulation. To the extent that any codes, guidance and/or requirements are advisory rather than mandatory, the standard of compliance to be achieved by the Seller shall be the best practice of the relevant industry. In all cases the costs of compliance shall be borne by the Seller.

11.2. The Goods shall be of the best available design, of the best quality, material and workmanship, be without fault and conform in all respects with the Order and any specifications supplied or advised by the Buyer to the Seller. The Seller warrants, represents and undertakes to the Buyer that:

In addition, UNIVAR may return or keep Goods that are not in conformity with the Contract at the Seller's costs until the Seller has issued further instructions as to what should be done with the Goods. Any costs to be incurred by UNIVAR will be for the Seller's account. Storage of the Goods will be for the Seller's account and risk. UNIVAR may require the Seller to ensure that the defective Goods are repaired at UNIVAR's premises, without charging any additional costs.

11.5. INFRINGEMENT The Seller warrants that the design, construction, quality and supply of the Goods specified in the Order will not infringe any patent, trade mark, service mark, registered design, know-how, confidential information, rights under licences or copyright or rights of the same or similar effect or nature in any part of the world and shall indemnify the Buyer against any action, claim, demand, costs, charges and expenses (including legal costs) arising from or incurred by reason of any infringement of this warranty. 13.8. Failure by the Seller to comply with these obligations shall be a material breach not capable of remedy and entitle Buyer to terminate the Contract in accordance with clause 17 of these Conditions.

14. PRODUCT SAFETY AND PRODUCT RECALL

14.1. The Seller shall immediately notify the Buyer (and where such notification is oral, confirm such notification in writing as soon as reasonably practicable) if the Seller has any reason to believe or suspect that there is any defect in the Goods that would render the Goods unsafe to any purchaser or user of such Goods or cause an unacceptable risk to consumers, or any error or omission in the instructions for use and/or assembly of the Goods which exposes or may expose consumers to any risk of death, injury or damage to property and the Seller shall promptly provide the Buyer with all relevant details (as the Buyer may reasonably request) relating to the circumstances giving rise to the notification.

18.2 Neither party shall be liable to the other as a result of any delay or failure to perform its obligations under this Contract as a result of a Force Majeure Event.

18.3 If the Force Majeure Event prevents either party from complying with its obligations under this Contract for a period exceeding four (4) weeks, either party shall, without limiting its other rights or remedies, have the right to terminate this Contract immediately by giving written notice to the other.
