In these conditions “Seller” refers to Univar Solutions LLC. and/or its subsidiary, associated or operating companies and “Buyer” refers to the individual firm or company to whom a quotation is addressed or whose bid is accepted by the Seller. These conditions shall apply in respect of all Contracts (“Contract”) between the Seller and Buyer for the purchase of goods or services from the Seller. No other conditions are incorporated or implied into any Contract between the Buyer and the Seller unless expressly accepted in writing by the Seller.

All references to prices, goods and services contained in these conditions shall be taken to mean the prices, goods and services detailed in the relevant written Specifications (“Specifications”) agreed upon between the Seller and the Buyer.

1. Application of Conditions

- (a) All quotations, offers and tenders are made subject to the following conditions. Except as otherwise provided in these conditions, all other terms, conditions, representations or warranties are excluded from any Contract between the Seller and the Buyer unless expressly accepted in writing by the Seller.
- (b) The Buyer’s bid for the purchase of goods shall be governed by and construed in accordance with these conditions.
- (c) The Buyer’s bid shall only be deemed to be accepted by the Seller when the Seller and the Buyer agree on the Specifications at which point and on which date the Specifications shall come into existence (Commencement Date).

2. Delivery

- (a) Time for delivery of the goods and completion of the services is given as accurately as possible but is not guaranteed. Except where otherwise agreed, the Seller shall deliver to the Buyer’s premises stated in the Specifications. In the event that the Seller is unable to deliver the goods at the agreed time, it shall use its reasonable endeavours to notify the Buyer of the delay. Upon notice by the Seller, the Buyer agrees to negotiate in good faith with the Seller to agree a new delivery date. In the event that the goods cannot be delivered, or the parties cannot agree a new delivery date, the Buyer may cancel the contract and seek alternative goods at its own cost and risk.
- (b) The Seller reserves the right to deliver less or more than the quantity of goods ordered by up to 10% and the Buyer shall pay for the quantity actually delivered. Measurements of volume or weight are also subject to variation as a result of normal manufacturing or packing processes and the Buyer agrees to and accepts such variations up to 10% of the stated measurement.
- (c) The Seller may deliver the goods by instalments, which shall be invoiced and paid for separately. Each instalment shall constitute a separate contract (as a separate agreement between the Parties). Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Buyer to cancel any other instalment. Failure by the Buyer to take delivery of any one or more instalments of goods delivered in accordance with the Contract shall entitle the Seller to terminate the Contract either in whole or part.
- (d) The Buyer’s complaints for defects of goods shall not be accepted, where such defects are reasonably apparent upon inspection, unless the Buyer notifies the Seller or the Buyer’s usual customer representative of identified defects within 3 working days of receipt of the goods, and confirms such identified defects by notification in writing within 5 working days of receipt of the goods. For latent and not reasonably apparent defects, Seller must be notified within 5 working days of discovery and in any event no later than 3 months from the date of delivery. Where the Seller is notified of the defects in accordance with this provision, the Seller shall promptly replace the goods at its sole option.
- (e) If the Buyer does not, at the agreed time, discharge the containers used to deliver the goods to the Buyer, the Buyer shall indemnify the Seller against any liability whatsoever, including, but not limited to, the Seller’s liability to pay demurrage or similar payments owed to the owner/operator of the container in respect of the consequent delay.

 - (ii) The Seller shall provide the Buyer with 21 calendar days advance notice of any price increase. The Buyer shall be entitled to cancel its order by providing written notice to the Seller, only if the goods or services provided under the Specifications are provided by the Seller out of the Seller's normal stock offering and do not form part of a particular stocking arrangement, such notice to be given within 7 days of the Buyer receiving notice of the price increase. If written notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller within 7 calendar days then the Contract will continue in force to the extent of the revised price.
- (c) Where as a direct result of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union the Seller's costs of delivering the goods are materially increased, the Seller shall be entitled to increase the price of the goods on at least 14 days' written notice to the Buyer for such Products delivered from, to or via the United Kingdom (at any point in the supply chain). This increase shall be documented by the Seller, but for avoidance of doubt, does not need to be agreed by the Buyer in advance. For the purpose of this condition, an increase of 5% or more of the Seller's costs shall in all cases be deemed to be a "material" increase".
- (d) All prices (which unless otherwise specifically stated are exclusive of VAT and any other applicable taxes, including hydrocarbon oil duty, where applicable, and do not include delivery or package charges) are net and are not subject to any discount. Unless otherwise agreed upon between the parties, payment must be received to the account nominated by the Seller no later than the 20th day of the month following the month of delivery of the goods or services, or no later than the last working day before the due date if the date falls on a nonworking day. The Buyer will pay all amounts due under the Contract in full and without any deduction, withholding or set-off.
- (e) In the event that the Buyer fails to pay or to properly pay for the goods, the Seller may, at its complete discretion, demand payment of liquidated damages at the rate of 0.1% of the price of the goods under the relevant Specifications for each calendar day of delay, but not more than 10% of the total price of the goods under the relevant Specifications.

- (f) Where the Buyer defaults in payment, the Seller shall be entitled to suspend any or all further deliveries and the performance of services under the Contract and under any other Contract between the Seller and the Buyer and demand immediate payment of all sums, whether owed or yet to be invoiced, by the Buyer to the Seller or any of its affiliated companies.
- (g) Where goods are delivered by instalments or the services performed in stages the Seller may invoice each instalment or stage separately and the Buyer shall pay such invoice in accordance with these conditions.
- (h) Any disputes and complaints arising out of or in connection with the Contract or the Seller's delay (other than delays acknowledged by the Seller in writing) shall entitle the Buyer to delay or deny payment due to the Seller.

- (i) Bank fees and other charges for the transfer of funds shall be borne by the party issued with the bank's payment demand.

4. Payment for Containers

- (a) Subject to condition 4(b), the Seller shall be entitled to charge the Buyer for crates, drums, boxes, cases, carboys or other types of packaging where such packaging is used for transportation of the goods to the Buyer. Where the Seller has indicated to the Buyer that such packaging is returnable to the Seller, the Buyer shall return them to the Seller in good condition within 2 months, carriage paid, and the Seller will credit the Buyer for such returned packaging in his next account. All returnable packages which are not returned to Seller in accordance with this provision, not complete or in good condition, and which have not previously been charged for, will be invoiced at the standard rate, payment of such invoice being due in accordance with condition 3(d).
- (b) Where the Buyer uses SAFE-TAINER™ containers, the Buyer shall notify the Seller as soon as empty SAFE-TAINER™ containers are available for collection and the Seller shall arrange collection of such containers with the Buyer. - (c) If the condition of the goods or services is such as might or would (subject to these conditions) entitle the Buyer to claim damages, to repudiate the Contract or to reject the goods or services the Buyer must first request that the Seller repair the goods or supply satisfactory substitute goods or services and the Seller shall then be entitled at its option to repair or supply satisfactory substitute goods or services, free of cost and promptly (within reasonable time), or to repay the price of the goods or services in respect of which the complaint is made.
- (d) If the Seller does so repair or supply satisfactory substitute goods or services or effect repayment under condition 6 (c), the Buyer shall be bound to accept such repaired or substituted goods or services or repayment and the Seller shall be under no further liability in respect of any loss or damage of whatever nature arising in relation to those goods or services.
